PROFIT REAPS ACCOUNTMATE REWARD

Profit Programming, a Hunts Valley, Md.-based reseller, has received the President's Award for 2016 from AccountMate. Founded in 1974, Profit also markets Tamlin Software Developers' Manufacturing Conductor and Accu-Dart's warehouse automation software. Usually awards are announced at AccountMate's roundtables or its annual Synergy conference, which alternate annually. However, because of its new product launch this year, AccountMate is encouraging resellers to instead come to its headquarters in Petaluma, Calif., for training. The awards were announced in a company enewsletter. Among other honors, the Director of Sales Award went to SOS Consulting of Sacramento, Calif. Regional Partners Awards were made as follows: Prism Visual Software, East; Personal Computer Accounting, Central, and Tamlin, West. NexLan of Danville, Ill., was honored for Exceptional Performance SQL Installations and Superior Performance Maintenance Agreements. Profit received the Exceptional Performance Professional Services designation and PCA, Exceptional Performance Distributed Products. iSoft Systems took home the award as the top Vertical Solution Partner. AccountMate made two international partner awards: Episilia for Exceptional Performance and RDP Consultants for Outstanding Achievement.
